“As an affiliate of SCCAR, the Association has always tried to help me build my business, support me and teach me several areas of how to be involved around the state. Most of all, so many of the people I have met over the years have become my mentors and friends.”

Missy Palitzsch, Director of Business Development
First Integrity Mortgage Services

“SCCAR provides an opportunity for new and seasoned affiliates to interact and build relationships with St. Charles REALTORS®. I'm able to network, educate and gain exposure for my business through the classes and social events held by the Association.”

Shelly Clark, Owner
Cardinal Surveying and Mapping

You Are More Than a Member

There are many reasons why the St. Charles County Association of REALTORS® (SCCAR) stands out from other associations. First and foremost is our customer service.

At REALTOR® headquarters, you are not a number; the atmosphere is welcoming. We know the more comfortable our members are at the Association, the more time they will spend becoming actively involved through cultivating relationships, attending classes and more!

We take pride in knowing our members on a first name basis, and we answer the phone when you call! It may sound simple, but we are here to help you succeed!

As a member, you are part of the St. Charles REALTORS® family; and that family is an extension of our communities. Today, we are the largest trade association in St. Charles County and one of the premier real estate organizations in the nation. We look forward to getting to know you and watching you exceed your wildest dreams!

Welcome to SCCAR!
