

Michelle Walker is the Broker/Owner of STL Buy & Sell, REALTORS®, one of St. Charles County's largest non-franchise brokerages. The STL agents are some of the highest-producing and top-rated REALTORS® in the region, and her company is celebrating its 10th anniversary this year. She credits her success to a diversified business model, hard work, and community service. She lives by her motto, "Give Back to Get Ahead." Michelle loves to serve her industry and community. She is the Immediate-Past President of St. Charles REALTORS® and in 2016 was elected to the Francis Howell School Board for a 3-year term. She also served as the 2014 President of the St. Charles Chapter of Women's Council of REAL-TORS®. Family is a huge part of Michelle's life, and she is the proud mom of three great kids, Mya, Walter & Mason. She and her husband, Walt, are seasoned real estate investors who own rental property and rehab homes. Michelle, who is a U.S. Navy Veteran, earned a Bachelor's in Business Administration from Columbia College. Always a fan of learning, she has continued her education by earning a slew of REALTOR® designations. Michelle was selected for the 2013-2014 Missouri REALTORS® Leadership Academy, and she is currently pursuing a Masters in Real Estate from REALTOR® University. She also served on the McKissock advisory board (parent company of Real Estate Express). Michelle loves technology and is very aware of its importance in the real estate industry. She spoke at the 2018 Inman Connect Indie Broker Summit and was integral in bringing REBar Camp to the St. Louis region. Michelle has been honored by her industry and her community with numerous awards and honors, including: • 2017 Streetscape Magazine Beyond the Best • 2016 St. Charles WCR Member of the Year • 2015 St. Charles WCR Entrepreneur of the Year • 2014 St. Charles REALTORS® REALTOR of the Year • 2013 Missouri WCR Excel Award • 2011 St. Charles WCR Excel Award • 2012-2017 Missouri REALTORS® Honor Society

