

Richard Rowe, President and owner of Alpha Real Estate Group, has been involved in all facets of the real estate industry for over 40 years, including maintenance, property management and brokerage. Experienced in residential, multi-family, homeowner and condominium associations and commercial properties he began his career in grounds and janitorial maintenance while in high school at the public housing authority in Burlington, Iowa. Richard progressed from maintenance supervisor through on-site management to become a regional portfolio manager of properties in Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Missouri.

Employed in 1993 as Director of Real Estate with Charles F Vatterott Real Estate Company, Richard was promoted to Vice President in 1997. Richard's experience in Section 8 and Section 42 (Low Income Tax Credit), association management of single family homes, condominiums and villas, multi-family, residential and commercial property maintenance, management and brokerage is reflected in his appreciation of the bottom line results, long term consequences and superior customer care.

Richard attended Southeast Community College, West Burlington, Iowa and Western Illinois University with a major in sociology and criminal justice. A licensed real estate salesperson in Missouri since 1990, Richard obtained his Missouri Real Estate Broker License in 2004. Richard and Rhonda, his wife of 36 years, reside in O'Fallon Missouri. He has three grown children and seven grandchildren and enjoys working around the house in his spare time. Richard has been involved with the Boys and Girls Club of America, is a member of the Cottleville and O'Fallon Chamber of Commerce and worked on the Committee for the new O'Fallon Police and Court Building. Richard has been a member of the Big Brother program, and he and his wife have enjoyed fostering children in the past.
